LOCAL BREVITIES. -Chas, L. Smith and John L. Shea were admitted to practice yesterday in the district -There was a wild runaway down South Ninth street yesterday morning. The driver was thrown out and badly bruised.

-A gun belonging to C. J. Canan was dis covered yesterday on the premises of Frank Barker. Barker claims that he did not steal it but bought it from two boys. He will not be prosecuted.

-Notice of Adventisers,-The Mondy morning edition of the BEE is the only daily published Monday morning in Nebraska o Iowa, It contains not only the very latest news sent by the associated press, but from five to ten thousand words of carefully compiled special dispatches and state news, together with full reports of local events of the previous day. The morning edition of the BER is by all odds the best advertising medium for all classes of advertisers, but more especially for parties who desire to reach the town population of Nebraska and Iowa, Every line of that issue is read not only by our regular subscribers, who exceed in number that of all other Nebraska and Iowa dailles but by thousands of others who read the Mon day Morning BEE because it is the only medium through which they can get the latest news. Advertising for this edition which has not been handed in by Saturday evening will be received at the counting room between 10 and 12 o'clock a, m, and 8 and 9 o'clock p.

In the rooms formerly occupied by French's grocery, III9 Farnam st., for the purpose of discussions. Hon, Wm. H. Curtis, of Boston, Mass., will conduct the meeting and will be prepared to answer all questions propounded him. He will be ably supported by Maj, Charles Goldsmith of Peoria, Ills,, and Hon. Ben. Woolman, of Chicago Ills. Mr. Curtis is well known throughout the east and has grown sopopular that he is pronounced the orator of the day, while Messrs Goldsmith and Woolman are both talented and high spirited gentlemen. The subjects for discussion will prove numerous and interesting, especially the object for which this glorious meeting will be called, namely: for an inspection of the elegant stock of Merchant Tailors Misfit and Uncalled for Garments. These meetings have drawn largely in the cities of Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington D. C., Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco. The stocks from the above named branches are to be opened in Omaha, forming one stock, with orders to close them out at what they will bring. Let all come out. Don't pass this by.
